California Says Delivery Apps Are Making it Easy for Minors to Get Booze

The mixed-drinks-to-go thing has also given a green light for alcohol deliveries from third-party services like Uber Eats, DoorDash, and Postmates, and it has also allegedly made it almost ridiculously easy for minors to order alcohol. Last week, the Department posted an update in the form of an Industry Advisory, which reminded restaurants and other ABC licensees that they're "ultimately responsible" for the delivery of any alcoholic beverages, and that, pandemic or not, it's still illegal to sell those drinks to anyone under 21.

Kentucky - E'town hires ABC enforcement officer

Brad Miller's face is one many businesses, who sell alcohol, will get to see often in the future as Elizabethtown's Alcohol Beverage Control enforcement officer. The position is one the city recently added. City Clerk and ABC Administrator Jessica Graham said with the continual increase of licenses within the city there was a need for an enforcement officer to help with the large volume.
